

6. The Governor may, whenever he may deem it necessary, employ two competent persons in the neighborhood of each of the said armories, to make out and return to the Secretary of State an accurate inventory of the arms, ammunition and other public property therein, together with the condition and value thereof, and the persons so employed shall be entitled to two dollars for each day they shall be actually engaged in the discharge of said duty.

7. The Armorers at Easton and Frederick shall each receive an annual salary of three hundred dollars.

ARTICLE IX.

Assignment of Choses in Action.

SEC. 1. The assignee of any judgment, bond, specialty, or other chose in action for the payment of money, or any legacy or distributive share of the estate of a deceased person bona fide entitled thereto by assignment in writing signed by the person authorized to make the same, may, by virtue of such assignment, maintain an action or issue an execution in his own name against the debtor therein named, in the same manner as the assignor might have done before the assignment.

2. The equitable assignee of a judgment may issue scire facias in his own name, to revive the same without administration upon the estate of the legal plaintiff.

3. Any defendant may make the same legal or equitable defence as might or could have been had and maintained against the assignor at the time of such assignment and before notice thereof, and to the same extent.

4. Where the legal plaintiff in any suit entered for the use of any person shall die before judgment, the person for whose use the same may be entered, or his representative, may prosecute the same to judgment as if the legal plaintiff had not died.

5. The surety in any bond or other obligation, for the payment of money or promissory note, or the endorser of any pro-
