

56. Any officer summoned to attend as a member of a general or division court martial who shall refuse or neglect to attend at the time and place appointed, shall be fined a sum not exceeding one hundred nor less than twenty-five dollars, unless he can give a reasonable excuse to the court for such non-attendance.

57. Any officer summoned to attend a brigade court martial, who shall refuse or neglect to attend at the time or place appointed, shall be fined not more than fifty nor less than ten dollars, unless he can give a reasonable excuse for such non-attendance.

58. Any officer summoned to attend as a member of a regimental, extra battalion or squadron court martial, who shall refuse or neglect to attend at the time and place appointed, shall be fined not exceeding thirty nor less than five dollars, unless he can give a reasonable excuse to the court for such non-attendance.

59. Any officer summoned to attend as a member of a company court martial who shall refuse or neglect to attend at the time and place appointed, shall be fined not exceeding ten nor less than two dollars, unless he can give a reasonable excuse to the court for such non-attendance.

60. Any non-commissioned officer or private summoned to attend as a member of a company court martial, who shall refuse or neglect to attend at the time and place appointed, shall be fined not exceeding five nor less than one dollar, unless he can give a reasonable excuse for such non-attendance.

61. Any commissioned officer removing out of the district of his brigade, regiment, extra battalion or squadron, with an intention of making a permanent change of his residence, shall on removal be deemed to have resigned his commission, and the commanding officer of the regiment, extra battalion or squadron which he commanded or to which he belonged, shall report such vacancy to the adjutant general, that the vacancy may be supplied by the Governor.

62. If any militiaman shall remove out of the company district in which he is enrolled into another district, or shall become a member of any volunteer company, he shall continue subject to all the duties that might be devolved on him in the district from