

which he removed or was enrolled, until he produces to the commanding officer of said district a certificate from the commanding officer of the district into which he shall have so removed, or from the commanding officer of said volunteer company, stating that he has been enrolled in his district or been admitted into his uniform company.

63. No person shall be permitted to leave his company except in the case aforesaid, unless he shall remove out of the limits of a brigade, or unless commissioned in some other corps, without the consent of the commanding officer, under a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars, in the discretion of such court martial as the case may require.

64. All resignations of commissioned officers shall be made through the adjutant general, and at least sixty days prior to the regular days herein appointed for the inspection, drill, or making any annual enrolment or draught of the district militia or volunteer corps to which such officer belonged, except in cases of removal, and otherwise no officer shall be considered as having resigned, except those who shall neglect to report themselves as herein directed, and every officer who may resign shall immediately notify the commanding officer of his company, battalion, squadron, regiment or brigade, as the case may be, of his resignation, that the officer next in rank may be charged with the duties of the office thereby vacated until the same shall be filled.

65. Whenever any part or parts of the militia shall be draughted and called into actual service, every person draughted shall have a choice either to serve in person or find a sufficient person as a substitute, which substitute shall be approved of by the colonel or commanding officer of the battalion or squadron to which he shall belong.

66. If any person not being disabled by sickness shall neglect or refuse to serve or find a substitute within three days after notice given to him, the colonel or commanding officer of the battalion or squadron to which such delinquent belongs, shall provide, hire or procure a substitute on as reasonable terms as may be, and shall charge such sum, together with reasonable expenses for procuring the same, to such delinquent, to be recovered by distress and sale of his goods and chattels, lands and
