

such musket or firelock in serviceable order, and it shall appear to be from his own default, he shall forfeit one dollar for every such neglect.

87. Any arsenal which has been provided and is now used by any volunteer corps, shall be continued in the discretion of said corps, and the expenses, when certified to the Governor as reasonable and correct and by him approved, shall be a charge on the funds derived from fines, penalties and forfeitures collected from said corps and paid into the treasury, and shall be paid therefrom by the Treasurer, upon the warrant of the Comptroller, to the paymaster of such corps or to his order.

88. Every paymaster, before he acts as such, shall give bond and security to the State, to the satisfaction of the field officers of the regiment, extra battalion or squadron to which he belongs, in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned that he will semi-annually submit to the adjutant general and the field officers of his regiment, battalion or squadron a full and fair statement of his accounts as paymaster as aforesaid, and pay over all the balances remaining in his hands when demanded by his successor in office, or by the person authorized to claim and receive the same, and in all things faithfully to discharge the duties of his office.

89. If any person shall sell or buy, except by the authority of the State, any of the arms or accoutrements belonging to the State, or give or receive the same in pledge, barter, or as a gift, knowing the same to be public property, or shall injure or destroy such arms and accoutrements, he shall for every such offence forfeit and pay twenty dollars, and if such arms and accoutrements shall by any of the means aforesaid be rendered useless or become lost, such person shall also forfeit and pay the full value thereof as fixed by the State for arms and accoutrements destroyed or lost; and such forfeiture shall be recovered at the instance of any commissioned officer, and be collected and paid by the sheriff of the proper county to the Treasurer of the State.

90. Whenever any of the public arms or accoutrements shall be found in the possession of any person except as authorized in this article or any law of this State, the same may be demanded by any commissioned officer, and if refused to be delivered up, on proof of such demand and refusal before any justice of the peace, he shall, at the instance of such officer, by
