

6. No such partnership shall be deemed to have been formed until a certificate shall have been made, acknowledged, filed and recorded; nor until an affidavit shall have been filed, as above directed. And if any false statement shall be made in such certificate or affidavit, all the persons interested in such partnership shall be liable for all the engagements thereof, as general partners.

7. The partners shall publish the terms of the partnership when registered, for at least six weeks immediately after such registry, in two newspapers, to be designated by the clerk of the court in which such registry shall be made, and in one newspaper in each county in which the said partnership shall have a place of business; and if there be no newspaper published in said county, then in such newspaper as the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county may designate, and by notices set up at the court-house door, and also at some public place in each election district of the county where such partnership, or any branch thereof, may be located; and if such publication be not made, the partnership shall be deemed general.

8. The affidavits of the publication of such notice, by the editors of the newspapers in which the same shall have been published, and the affidavit of some disinterested person in cases where publication by notices at public places may be necessary, that said notice or notices were put up agreeably to the provisions of the preceding section of this article, shall be filed with the clerk directing the same, and shall be evidence of the facts therein contained.

9. Every renewal or continuance of such partnership beyond the time originally fixed for its duration, shall be certified, acknowledged and recorded; and an affidavit of a general partner be made and filed, and notice be given in the manner herein required for its original formation; and every such partnership which shall be otherwise renewed or continued, shall be deemed a general partnership.

10. Every alteration which shall be made in the names of the partners, in the nature of the business, or in the capital or shares thereof, or in any other matter specified in the original certificate, shall be deemed a dissolution of the partnership; and every such partnership which shall in any manner be carried on after any such alteration shall have been made, shall be deemed a general
