

charge of their respective duties, shall execute bonds to the State with security to be approved by the Board of Directors, and in no manner connected with the management of said Penitentiary, the warden in the sum of ten thousand dollars, and the other officers, guards and superintendents in such penalty and with such security as the board of directors may deem proper, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties required of them respectively by the laws of this State, and the rules and regulations that may be adopted from time to time for the government of the said Penitentiary, and the said bonds shall be filed in the Executive Department of the State, and a certified copy thereof, under the seal of the State, shall be evidence in actions on said bonds or any of them; and if either of the officers aforesaid shall neglect to execute bond as herein prescribed, or neglect to take the oath prescribed by the directors, within twenty days after notice of his or her appointment, another person shall be appointed in place of the said delinquent.

8. The directors shall fix the amount of the salaries to be paid to the deputy warden, police and other officers, guards, and superintendents employed in the penitentiary, shall define their respective duties, and take from them respectively the bond required by the preceding section.

9. The warden shall receive a salary of fifteen hundred dollars, and shall be allowed the occupancy of such parts of the front building as a dwelling as are not used for the purposes of the penitentiary, and all necessary out houses, yards and grounds not within the walls of the prison proper.

10. The directors shall receive two dollars each, for every day they may necessarily attend in the discharge of their duties as directors, or in the capacity of monthly committee, as hereinafter provided; but when they attend in both capacities on the same day, they shall not receive more than one day's pay.

11. The book-keeper shall keep a record of the attendance of said directors, as directors, and as members of the monthly committee, and they shall be paid for their services according to the entries in said record.

12. The name and corporate style of the institution shall be "The Directors of the Maryland Penitentiary," and by that name the said Directors shall have power to institute any suit or suits