

ment of discipline, and they are expected to pay strict attention to this service.

DEPUTY KEEPERS.

51. Deputy keepers shall continue at all times, day and night, within the prison, unless by permission of the warden, and do all the duties assigned them by the keeper, in addition to those directed by the board. They are particularly to enforce silence and labor among the prisoners, and to preserve the strictest order and discipline.

52. They shall not, nor shall any director or other officer, have any work of any kind done at the prison.

53. They shall furnish approved substitutes during their absence, or the warden may appoint them at their expense.

54. They shall not use spirits, wine, or strong drink; and all wrangling and disputes shall be punished by the dismissal of both parties.

55. The Board of Directors shall make special regulations respecting the duties of these officers, and shall assign to them respectively by name the offices they are to perform; and the warden shall cause their duties to be explained and made known to them.

MATRON.

56. The matron shall attend at all times and reside in the prison, except when allowed to go out by the warden.

57. The rules and regulations for the government of the men are to be enforced among the women; and they are to perform such work (under the matron's superintendence) as the warden may direct.

PHYSICIAN.

58. The physician shall visit the prison at least once in each day, at a certain hour, and whenever his attendance may be required.

59. He shall keep a hospital journal, in which shall be entered the names of the convicts reported sick, whether they be admitted or not.
