

VISITORS.

69. No person shall be permitted to visit the penitentiary except on business; and this shall be transacted in the front building, or unless he have written permission as the directors may prescribe, or unless he be a member of the Legislature for the time being, Governor, Secretary of State, Judge of a Court of Record, State's Attorney, member of a City Corporation in the State, or Sheriff or Grand Juror.

70. Visitors shall hold no communication with the convicts except by permission, and in the presence of an officer; nor receive or give anything from or to them. And the practice of visiting the convicts shall be discountenanced as much as possible.

WARDEN.

71. The warden shall see that the laws of the State, and the rules and regulations for enforcement of order and discipline, are strictly observed, and in case of necessity, he shall report to the monthly committee or convene the Board of Directors.

72. He shall, upon the admission of convicts, search for any improper articles upon their persons; take their height, name, age, complexion, eyes and hair, place of birth and conviction, nature of the crime and term of confinement, and also inquire into the convict's former life, trade and occupation, and learn the leading causes of his present condition, which shall be faithfully recorded in a book to be kept by the clerk.

73. He shall read to convicts on their admission, the laws relating to escapes and rebellious or disorderly conduct, and make them understand that obedience is required and will be obtained.

74. He shall see that convicts on their discharge are possessed of every thing that they brought with them to the prison.

75. He shall take proper measures for the health and cleanliness of the prison, and see that the convicts pay proper attention to their persons.

76. He shall not permit any kind of gaming, or profane or indecorous language to be used by the convicts, or any of the officers.
