ASSISTANT WARDEN.

90. The assistant warden shall aid the warden in carrying out the laws of the State, and the regulations of the prison.

91. He shall receive and execute the warden's orders when present, but in his absence must take his place, with all the warden's powers, and in the warden's absence from the prison, night or day, the assistant warden must be present.

92. He shall have particular charge of the victualling department, and be present at meals, unless his place be taken by the warden; and he shall examine the whole prison after the hour of locking up, and see that all is safe; his duties shall be mostly of a supervisory character over the whole prison, but he shall discharge specific duties when assigned him.

93. The Board of Directors shall make all rules and regulations to enforce obedience, order and discipline among the convicts, that may be necessary in addition to those herein prescribed, and shall cause this article, and all the rules that may be adopted from time to time, to be printed for the information and direction of the officers. And the officers shall not enforce any order or principle of discipline, unless the same be made previously a part of the rules and regulations, and communicated to them as such.

94. It shall be lawful for the warden of the penitentiary to receive into his custody, and put to labor, any person who may be sentenced to imprisonment therein by the courts of the United States, in and for the District of Maryland, on condition that he be paid towards the support of said institution the sum of thirty cents per diem for the time the said prisoner shall remain in custody; and the said prisoner shall whilst there be subject to the same laws and discipline to which other convicts from the State courts are subjected.

95. The per diem mentioned in the last preceding section shall be paid, or secured to be paid monthly, to the warden of the penitentiary, who shall account for the same to the said institution, and if the payment thereof shall not be punctually made, the
