

17. The master or owner of every vessel sailing under a coasting license over one hundred tons, shall, before going to sea, apply to the Board of Pilots for a license to navigate the Chesapeake Bay without a pilot, and shall pay to the said Board of Pilots for such license at the rate of six cents per ton, and such license shall be good for twelve months from the date thereof.

18. The master or owner of every vessel required to take out license under the two last preceding sections, navigating the Chesapeake Bay without such license, shall either take the first licensed pilot who offers to conduct or pilot his vessel to or from sea, or shall pay him full pilotage; but the payment of full pilotage shall not be exacted from any inward bound vessel which, on her arrival and before her departure, shall obtain from the Board of Pilots a license in pursuance of the provisions of this article.

19. The money collected by the Board of Pilots, under the 16th and 17th sections of this article, shall be equally distributed quarterly among the regular working pilots over twenty-one years of age; but the board shall make suitable provision for any pilot who is sick or disabled, not exceeding the distributive portion of any pilot engaged in active service.

20. The master or owner of any vessel bound up or down the Pocomoke River, or any river whose mouth is bounded on both sides by the Eastern Shore of Maryland, shall not be required to take out any license from the Board of Pilots, or to pay any pilotage to or from any of said rivers, unless a pilot be employed; Provided, the master or owner of any vessel shall not touch in any of said rivers on their passage to or from Baltimore for the purpose of avoiding any of the provisions of this article.

21. No pilot shall charge or receive any greater or less reward or compensation for his services as such, than as follows: For every vessel from sea to Baltimore, drawing fifteen feet water or over, five dollars for each foot of water she may draw; for every vessel drawing twelve feet water, and not exceeding fifteen feet, four dollars for each foot of water she may draw; for all vessels drawing less than twelve feet, three dollars and fifty cents for each foot she may draw; and upon all vessels bound from Baltimore to sea, a deduction of one dollar per foot upon the foregoing list of rates shall be made, which rates shall apply to vessels to or from Georgetown.
