

dent or absconding debtor, but the court shall allow such writ of attachment to be amended at any time before judgment thereon.

29. No attachment sued out for a debt due to any minor, feme covert or lunatic, on the oath or affirmation of the guardian, husband or committee of such minor, feme covert or lunatic, shall be quashed or set aside for any defect in matter of form.

ATTACHMENTS ON JUDGMENTS, AND ATTACHMENTS ISSUED BY JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

30. Any plaintiff having a judgment or decree in any court of law or equity in this State, may, instead of any other execution, issue an attachment against the lands, tenements, goods, chattels and credits of the defendant in the plaintiff's own hands, or in the hands of any other person, which attachment shall contain the clause of scire facias required in an attachment against a non-resident or absconding debtor.

31. If neither the defendant nor the garnishee in whose hands such property or credits were attached, appear at the return of the attachment and show sufficient cause to the contrary, the court shall condemn the said property and credits so attached and award execution thereof.

32. If the sheriff of any county or city shall return "nulla bona" to any execution or attachment issued on a judgment or decree of any court of law or equity in this State, the plaintiff may issue an attachment to the sheriff of any other county or city.

33. Every attachment issued under the last preceding section shall be made returnable to the court of the county or city to which it may be sent, and shall be sent by the clerk issuing the same, with a copy of the docket entries in the case, to the clerk of the court to which said writ shall be returnable, and the said court shall proceed with such attachment as if the same had originated therein, and may renew the same.

34. The several justices of the peace of this State may issue an attachment by way of execution on any judgment obtained before any justice of the peace in all cases where a writ of fieri facias might issue.
