

by the preceding section, in said court to which said removal is ordered, suggesting that he, she or they cannot have justice in such county, whereupon the said Circuit Court shall remove the said cause or action, issues or petition, presentment or indictment to such adjoining county as the said Circuit Court shall think will best tend to justice between the parties to said suit or action, issues or petition, presentment or indictment.

76*. It shall be in the power and discretion of the judge, should he think it proper, to cause a special panel of forty-eight jurors to be selected to try any cause or causes removed under the two preceding sections, and the court shall direct the clerk thereof to divide by ballot said number of jurors into two panels of petit jurors, and may take such order for the regulating and attendance of said panels, as the said court shall see fit, and the said court may direct talesmen to be summoned in said cause or causes whensoever necessary.

77*. In all criminal cases removed to the said counties, where the party or parties accused is detained in the jail of Baltimore city, the said party or parties so detained shall not be removed to the said counties until the first day of the session of the court to which said cause shall be removed.

78*. The judge of any of the said Circuit Courts, to which any cause or causes may be removed under the four preceding sections, shall allow such compensation to the State's Attorney for his services in appearing to or trying said cause or causes, as the said judge may deem just and proper, said allowance to be paid by the Register of the City of Baltimore, or the proper officer, upon the certificate of the judge of the court to which said cause or causes were removed.

79. If it shall appear to any court to which any civil or criminal case has been removed, that the transcript of the record in said case is not a true transcript of the record or proceedings had in the court from which the said case has been removed, it shall be the duty of the court to which the case has been removed forthwith to order and direct that the said imperfect transcript shall be delivered to the clerk of the court from which the same was sent, and it shall be the duty of said clerk receiving such transcript so to him returned to correct the same forthwith, noting at the end thereof the corrections so made, or to prepare
