

94. In cases of writs of scire facias against heirs and terre tenants, where any of the heirs of terre tenants reside in another county than that in which the judgment on which such scire facias is issued was obtained, duplicates of such writ may issue directed to the sheriff of each county wherein any of the heirs or terre tenants reside, and shall be served by the sheriff and returned to the court from which they issued, and the party so summoned by means of such duplicates shall be proceeded against in the same manner as if they were residents of the county in which the judgment was obtained.

95. In all cases where a joint action is instituted against heirs and devisees, and any of such heirs or devisees shall be residents of another county, a duplicate writ may issue to the county where any of said heirs or devisees reside, directed to the sheriff thereof, who shall serve and return the same to the court from which it issued, and the same proceedings shall be had as if such heirs or devisees resided in the county where the suit was brought; Provided, all such actions shall be instituted in the county in which the deceased died, if any of his heirs reside there, and if not, in the county in which his real estate or some part thereof is situated.

96. An execution or attachment may issue on any judgment or decree to the sheriff of any other county, if an execution or attachment has been issued to the sheriff of the county where the judgment or decree was obtained and returned "nulla bona," or if a defendant in a judgment shall remove from the county in which the judgment was rendered to any other county, an execution may issue from the court in which the judgment was rendered to the sheriff of the county in which the defendant shall reside, and such execution or attachment shall be made returnable to the Circuit Court of the county to which it is sent, and the court to which the same is returned shall upon the production of a short copy of the judgment, proceed in the same manner by renewal or otherwise as if the said execution or attachment had been issued by such court on a judgment or decree therein.

97. A summons for witnesses residing in a different county to testify in trials to be had before the Circuit Court, may issue, and shall be directed to the sheriff of the county where the witnesses reside, and all witnesses upon whom such summons shall be served shall be liable to attachment and fine in like
