

111. When the sheriff is a party to or interested in any suit or proceeding in any court so as to be disqualified from serving process, and there is no coroner duly qualified to serve such process, the judge of the court in which such suit or proceeding is to be instituted or is pending, shall on application of any party interested, supported by affidavit or other proof of such disqualification, appoint an elisor to serve any process in such suit or proceeding, which appointment shall be in writing, signed by the judge, and filed with the clerk issuing the process, and may be made either in court or during the recess.

112. Every elisor appointed as aforesaid shall have the same power to serve any writ or process directed to him as the sheriff has to serve similar process, and shall be entitled to the same fees therefor.

113. If any elisor dies or refuses to act, the judge may appoint another in his place.

114. The city of Baltimore shall be regarded as a county, so far as relates to the sending of process of any kind from one county to another, and each of its courts within its respective jurisdiction, shall have all the powers of the Circuit Court for a county in relation to such process, but all executions or attachments on judgments or decrees sent from another county shall be made returnable to the Superior Court of said city.
