

respectively, to supply each member and officer thereof with one copy, and that a like number of all bills and reports ordered to be printed, be furnished and distributed to said members and officers; and that the offices of the Executive, the Comptroller, the Treasurer, and the Commissioner of the Land Office, and the State Library, be severally regularly supplied with one copy of the said journals and reports, and the library with six additional copies of the bills.

3. Nothing contained in the preceding section shall prevent either house from having printed extra copies of any report or other document for distribution among the people.

4. Each house shall provide for the printing, in addition to the copies required in the second section of this article, five hundred copies of their journal of proceedings, and a like number of copies of the various reports and other documents which may be ordered to be printed, in compact form, which said copies shall be delivered in sheets to the State Librarian, within thirty days after the adjournment of the General Assembly.

5. The two houses shall jointly contract for the printing of one thousand copies of the acts and resolutions of the General Assembly, with marginal notes and indexes, the work of printing the same to be prosecuted during the session, and to be completed within fifty days after the close thereof and delivered in sheets to the State Librarian.

6. Each person who shall be employed as printer to either house, or printer of the acts and resolutions, shall enter into bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, to be approved by the Treasurer of the State, for the faithful performance of his trust.
