

13. The ground and the buildings which may be erected thereon for said House of Refuge shall be free of tax.

14. No public streets, lanes, alleys, roads, rail roads or canals of any kind, shall be opened through the lands, or any part of the lands of the House of Refuge, where the same are exclusively used or appropriated for the purposes of its incorporation, except with the consent of the board of managers.

15. The board of managers shall have power, in their discretion, to take into said house all such white children as shall be taken up and committed as street beggars or vagrants, or shall be convicted of criminal offences, or as hereinafter provided for in the case of application of parents or guardians.

16. They shall have power to place the children committed to their care, during the minority of such children, at such employments, and cause them to be instructed in such branches of useful knowledge, as may be suited to their years and capacities.

17*. The managers of the House of Refuge shall have power to bind out the children committed to their care, with the consent of such children, as apprentices during their minority, that is to say, males until the age of twenty-one years, and the females until the age of eighteen years, to such persons and places, whether in or out of this State, and to learn such proper trades or employments, as in the judgment of the said managers will be most conducive to the reformation and the future benefit and advantage of such children; and the indentures by which said children shall be bound shall contain the covenants and shall be recorded as prescribed by article sixth of the code, and all the provisions of the said article in relation to white apprentices shall apply to apprentices bound under this section.

18*. The manner of receiving inmates into the House of Refuge shall be in either of the following modes, namely: First, white minors may be committed by a justice of the peace for any of the counties, or the city of Baltimore, on complaint and due proof made to him by the parent, guardian or next friend of such minor, that, by reason of incorrigible or vicious conduct, such minor has rendered his or her control beyond the power of such parent, guardian or next friend, and made it manifestly requisite, that from regard for the morals and future welfare of such minor, and the peace and order of society, he or she should be placed under
