

10. When any such bank shall appoint a trustee or trustees for the benefit of the creditors of such bank, any court of equity having jurisdiction where the said bank is situated or has its office, may in its discretion appoint, in place of such trustee or trustees, or any of them, any other person or persons who shall be nominated and recommended by a majority in amount of the creditors of said bank, if the said court shall be satisfied that the interest of the creditors of said bank requires such appointment.

11. In all such cases the majority of the creditors in amount shall have the right, on application made to the said court, to require the trustee or trustees who shall be appointed by any bank for the benefit of the said creditors to give bond and security to the State of Maryland, in such sum and with such security as the said court may require and approve, for the faithful performance and execution of the trust, and on neglect or refusal so to do, to surrender up the trust; and the said bond shall be filed and recorded with all other of the proceedings, and a copy of the same, authenticated in the usual form, shall be evidence.

12. Every bank and incorporated institution in this State which is in the habit of receiving deposits and declaring dividends, shall cause to be published in some newspaper printed in the county in which such bank or institution may be located, or in the city of Baltimore as the case may be, once a week for three successive weeks in the month of September in each year, a list of the deposits and dividends which have been of more than three years' standing, and uncalled for and unclaimed, together with the names of the parties to whose credit they stand on the books of such bank or institution and their respective amount. This section not to apply to Savings banks, nor to institutions which receive deposits and compound the interest and dividends as they become due.

13. All the expenses incurred by the said bank or incorporated institution in making out and publishing the said lists, shall be paid out of and be deducted pro rata from the dividends and deposits unclaimed and uncalled for as aforesaid.

14. If any bank or incorporated institution aforesaid shall in any year fail or neglect to make the publication required by the 12th section of this article, the president of such bank or incorporated institution shall be liable to a fine of not less than fifty
