

court in like manner as guardians are required by law to account, and subject to the like control and authority of the court, in all respects whatever.

152. No administrator shall be bound in any manner to discharge and fulfil the duties of guardian after the close of his administration, or after the end of three years from the granting such administration, nor after a guardian shall be appointed by the Orphans' Court.

153. When a guardian or guardians shall be appointed to such infant, or the said infant shall arrive at age, or if a female be married—whichever shall first happen—the administrator shall render to the Orphans' Court an account on oath of the manner in which the duties imposed by the two preceding sections have been discharged, in the same manner and upon the same principles as guardians are hereinafter required to settle their accounts, and subject to the like control and authority of the court in all respects; and the said account shall be separate and distinct from the administration of the personal estate of the deceased; and the Orphans' Court shall thereupon pass an order directing such administrator to pay over to the guardian or guardians, or to the person entitled as the case may be, any money remaining in his hands belonging to such infant, which shall have arisen from the profit of the real estate belonging to such infant, and also to deliver over to such guardian or guardians, or person entitled, the real estate of such infant; and upon neglect or refusal of the administrator to obey such order, or to return an account as herein directed, his administration bond shall be liable to be sued by such guardian or guardians, or person entitled, and the Orphans' Court may moreover proceed against him by attachment and sequestration.

154. Every natural guardian, or guardian appointed by last will and testament of the estate or property of infants, shall give bond with securities to be approved by the Orphans' Court, as directed in the next succeeding section.

155. Every guardian appointed by the court, and every guardian by will, or natural guardian, before he proceeds to act as such, shall enter into bond to the State of Maryland in such penalty and with such sureties as the court shall approve, and to be recorded and be subject to be put in suit, and to be in all respects on a footing with an administration bond, with the
