

186. The Orphans' Court may, in their discretion, upon the application in writing of any guardian whom they may have appointed, revoke the appointment of such guardian, and appoint a new guardian or guardians.

187. If any guardian whose appointment is revoked, shall refuse or neglect in a reasonable time after demand, to deliver over to such new guardian or guardians the property of his ward, the court may compel the same by attachment, and may direct the bond of such removed guardian to be put in suit.

188. Nothing contained in the two preceding sections, shall be construed to relieve the guardian whose appointment is revoked from the liabilities of other guardians whose appointments are revoked; and such revocation shall be of no force and effect whatsoever, until the newly appointed guardian shall have signified his acceptance of the appointment by filing in the Orphans' Court his bond, in such penalty and with such sureties as the court shall approve.

189. Whenever the Orphans' Court, for any cause, shall revoke the guardianship of any guardian, and there be no remaining guardian, they shall appoint a new guardian; and if the party whose guardianship is revoked, shall not within a reasonable time to be fixed by the court, deliver over to the remaining guardian (if there be one, if not, then to the new guardian) all the property of the ward remaining in the hands of the party whose guardianship is revoked, and also all the books, bonds, notes, and evidences of debt or funds, and also all title to property or stock which belong to, or are due to the ward, in the possession of the guardian, and also pay over to the remaining guardian (if there be one, if not, then to the new guardian) all the money due to said ward, the said court may compel the delivery and payment over as aforesaid by attachment and sequestration of the property of the party whose guardianship may be revoked, and may direct his bond to be put in suit.

190. Where any infant shall be entitled to any legacy or distributive share of an estate, or any personal property in the hands of an administrator, and a guardian for such infant has been, or may be, appointed by any Orphans' Court of this State, whose appointment, however, has been irregularly made, and is or shall be liable to be revoked or declared void, for
