

any cause whatever, but shall not have been revoked or declared void, any payment or delivery to such guardian of such legacy, distributive share, or personal property by such administrator, shall have the same force, validity and effect as respects such administrator as if said guardian's appointment were regularly made, and not for any cause liable to be revoked or declared void.

191. Every such guardian so receiving money or other property belonging to his ward, shall be liable to account for the same, to be recovered by suit on his guardian bond or otherwise, as provided by law in case of guardians duly and regularly appointed.

192. On a ward's arrival at age, or on the marriage of a female ward, the guardian shall exhibit a final account to the Orphans' Court, and shall deliver up agreeably to the court's order to the said ward, or to the husband, as the case may require, all the property of such ward in his hands, including bonds and other securities, and on failure, his bond may be put in suit, and he shall be liable to attachment and fine not exceeding three hundred dollars; and a female shall be of age at eighteen, for the purposes of this section.

193. It shall not be lawful for any person whatsoever, not being guardian, or not having license from a guardian, to enter into, possess or occupy any lands or tenements belonging to any orphan or orphans, without first applying to the Orphans' Court where the land lies, and obtaining leave from them for such rents as they shall think just and reasonable, to be paid to such orphan or orphans, on pain of being trespassers, and paying treble damages and full costs to such orphan or orphans, to be recovered by the guardian during the orphan's minority, or by the orphan when at full age.

194. Whenever the Orphans' Court shall be in any manner informed of any waste being done by any guardian upon any orphan's estate, the said court shall issue their warrant to cause such guardian to appear before them, and if upon the said guardian's appearance before them, and being heard in his defence, or on his refusal to appear, being summoned, such information shall appear to be true, the said court shall order the sheriff, with all possible speed, to summon a jury upon the place where the waste shall be committed, to inquire upon their oath into the
