

252. The Orphans' Court shall not, under pretext of incidental power or constructive authority, exercise any jurisdiction not expressly conferred by law; but every judgment, decree, decision or order of the said court may be enforced by attachment and sequestration, as aforesaid; and if the said judgment, decree, decision or order be for paying money, the property sequestered may, at the discretion of the court, be applied to the purpose for which such judgment, decree, decision or order was given.

REGISTER OF WILLS.

253. The Register of Wills in each county, before he acts as such, shall give bond with two good and sufficient securities in the penal sum of seven thousand dollars, payable to this State, conditioned for the faithful performance of his said office of Register of Wills, which bond shall be taken and securities approved by the Judges of the Orphans' Court, and recorded in the office of the clerk of the Circuit Court for the county in which the party so executing the bond shall live, or the Superior Court of Baltimore city if Register of said city; and every register shall renew his bond on or before the first day of August in every second year.

254. On default of any Register of Wills to execute the bond required by the preceding section, within the time therein prescribed, such defaulter shall be subject to a penalty of one thousand dollars, to be recovered by indictment, in the name of the State, in the Circuit Court of the county in which such officer shall reside, or if he reside in the city of Baltimore, to be recovered by indictment in the Criminal Court of Baltimore.

255. It shall be the duty of each Register of Wills to transmit to the Governor, on the first Monday of October next after the execution of said bond, a certified copy of the bond executed by him.

256. Each register shall diligently attend each meeting of the Orphans' Court in his county or city, and under their direction make full and fair entries of their proceedings, and also make a fair record in a strong bound book or books, of all wills proved before him or the said court, or authenticated according to law, and of all other matters by law directed to be recorded in the said court, or in his office; he shall make out and issue every summons, process, or order of the court, and shall in every respect
