

the measure to be filled even, without rise or heap, and the fruit not packed or pressed in the measurement thereof, and every person violating the provisions of this section shall be subject to a fine of five dollars, to be recovered before a justice of the peace as other debts, one-half to the informer and the other half to the use of the State.

17. All oats bought and sold in this State, shall be by struck measure.

18*. Potatoes in this State shall be sold by weight, at the rate of fifty-six pounds to the bushel, and any person offending against the provisions of this section shall be subject to a fine of ten dollars, to be recovered before any justice of the peace of the city or county where said offence may be committed.

19. Hay and straw, which may be sold by weight in this State, shall be sold by the nett hundred, and every twenty hundred pounds nett weight shall be a ton.

20. The size and dimensions of the corn barrel measure shall be as follows, namely: twenty-one inches in diameter (clear of staves) at the bottom, and twenty-three inches in diameter (clear of staves) at the top, and shall hold five struck bushels of corn.

21. Quercitron and all other ground bark, sumach and all other articles sold by weight, shall be sold by the one hundred pounds for one hundred weight, and twenty hundred shall be considered and taken for a ton, and so in proportion for any greater or smaller quantity.

22. The count of all staves and heading, shall be by the short hundred, so that one thousand pieces shall be computed as one thousand staves or heading, as the case may be, and any inspector or dealer in staves or heading, attempting to count or compute at any greater rate than one thousand pieces to the thousand, and in that proportion for a greater or less number, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be subject to indictment, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, one-half to the informer and the other half to the State.

23. No person shall sell any package or parcel of cotton, woollen or other dry goods, having any mark thereon or attached thereto, indicating or stating a greater number of yards