

53. If any person against whom an attachment has issued under either of the preceding sections, shall satisfy the court that no waste has been committed since the service of the injunction, he shall be discharged with his costs.

54. Whenever an application shall be made by an executor or administrator for an injunction to stay proceedings at law, the court may, in its discretion, prescribe the penalty of a bond, which shall be executed to the plaintiff at law, with security approved by the court, before the injunction shall be granted, and the condition of such bond shall be, to perform such order or decree as the court shall finally pass in the cause on the hearing of both parties; and whenever an injunction is obtained by an executor or administrator, on filing a bill and executing a bond as aforesaid, the court shall have full power and discretion to decree against such executor or administrator, as equity and good conscience shall seem to require.

55. In all cases where a sheriff, or other officer, is prevented by an injunction from selling personal property taken in execution, he shall deliver back the property taken in execution to the party from whom it was taken, and shall not be answerable to the plaintiff at law on account of the same.

JURISDICTION.

56. The judges of the several judicial circuits, the judge of the Circuit Court for Baltimore city, and the judge of the Superior Court of Baltimore city, shall each, in his respective circuit, have and exercise all the power, authority and jurisdiction which the Court of Chancery had at the adoption of the present Constitution.

57. Each of the circuit judges may grant injunctions, or pass orders or decrees in equity, at any place in his circuit, to take effect in any part of his circuit, and may require in writing the original papers in any case, or abstracts and transcripts to be produced before him, wherever he may be in his circuit.

58. Whenever lands lie partly in one county and partly in another, or partly in a county and partly in the city of Baltimore, or whenever persons proper to be made defendants to proceedings in chancery reside some in one county and some in another, or some in a county and some in the city of Baltimore,
