

58. It shall be the duty of the several collectors to pay over under oath, to the Treasurer of the State of Maryland, and the treasurer of Baltimore county, respectively, on the first Tuesday of the next month after said taxes are placed in their hands, and on the first Tuesday in each and every month thereafter, the amount collected by them, until the collections are completed, and on the failure to make such monthly payments, the delinquent collector may be removed by the county commissioners, and at the end of the time herein allowed for the collections aforesaid, by said collectors, they and each of them shall make to the county treasurer a full and complete return under oath, of the whole amount of taxes collected by them during the year; and also an alphabetical list of all delinquent tax payers, and the sums due by each of them, which lists the county commissioners are authorized to publish in at least one newspaper published in the county, and on failure to complete within twelve months from the day and date of receiving said taxes for collection, the collection and return of the whole amount thereof to the county and State Treasurer respectively (except such sums as the county commissioners upon examination of the returns of said collectors may determine to be, and to have been uncollectable) their bonds shall be liable for the same, and the county commissioners shall cause suit to be brought on the bond given for the county taxes, and the State Treasurer may cause suit to be brought on the bond given for State tax, to the next term of the Circuit Court thereafter, and the said court is hereby authorized, upon motion of the attorney of said commissioners or the attorney of the State, after notice to said collectors and their sureties, to take judgments for such amounts as may be found to be due by them for the non-payment or settlement of said taxes.

59. Whenever the collectors aforesaid shall find it necessary to proceed to enforce the collection of State and county taxes, they shall first leave with the tax payer, or his agent, tenant or occupant of the premises, or at his usual place of abode, the tax bill or bills showing the aggregate amount of assessments, and levy for such taxes as may be owing by the party, with a notice to said bill annexed, that unless the said bills are paid within five days thereafter, the said collector will proceed to enforce collection thereof according to law; after which, if the tax payer aforesaid shall fail to make payment, the said collector is authorized to levy upon either the real or personal property of the party neglecting to pay, and to expose the same at public sale, after ten days' public notice of time, place, and cause of such sale, by