

ELECTIONS.

100*. Baltimore county is divided into thirteen election districts, according to their present bounds and limits, and all elections for public officers shall be held in each of the said districts, at the places now or hereafter established by or in pursuance of any act of Assembly passed for that purpose.

101. The judges and clerks of election in said county shall receive three dollars a day while acting as such; the return judges who reside over ten miles from the court-house, shall be entitled to two days' extra pay, and other return judges to one day's extra pay.

FENCES.

102. In all cases in which two or more persons in said county have agreed or shall agree to join in making division fences between their respective lands, each of said persons shall make and keep in good repair his portion of such fence.

103. If either of said persons shall fail or neglect to make such fence in pursuance of his agreement, or to keep or put the same in good repair within twenty days after he shall have been notified and requested so to do, in writing, by the parties to such agreement, or by any person who may have joined in making any division fence now in existence in pursuance of an agreement heretofore made, the person making the request may apply to a justice of the county, who, upon proof being made that the notice and request has been given as aforesaid, and that any or either of the parties has refused to comply with the provisions of the last preceding section, shall order and direct in writing that the person so applying to him may make said fences, or put the same in repair, as the case may be, and the cost thereof shall be chargeable to the party or parties whose duty it was to make or repair the same, and may be recovered by the person making or repairing said fences, in an action of debt before any justice of the peace of said county, or by suit in the Circuit Court for said county, if the amount expended shall exceed one hundred dollars.

104. The fences so to be made or kept in repair shall be, if a worm fence, of ordinary good height, to be ascertained by three freeholders as directed by the next succeeding section, and shall be sufficiently close to prevent hogs or pigs from
