

117. If any person bringing any fire wood by railroads, or otherwise, to Clarksville, or the limits aforesaid, for sale, shall consume the same, unless for his family use, before it has been corded and measured by the said inspector and corder, or shall neglect or refuse to have the same corded and measured, or after the same has been measured, shall alter the measurement or sell the same by other measurement, or if any person shall knowingly purchase and receive any fire wood brought to the said Clarksville, which hath not been corded and measured, he shall forfeit two dollars for every cord, and so in proportion for any less quantity, to be recovered by warrant, in the name of the informer; one-half to the use of the informer, and the other half to the use of the school fund in said county.

LIME.

118. The lime manufactured at Clarksville, in Baltimore county, between the fourteenth and sixteenth miles on the Baltimore and Susquehanna Railroad, and within the space of one-half mile on the east and west sides of said road, the inspection of which is not provided for by law, shall be inspected and measured by the inspector and corder of wood, at the same place, in the manner and for the fees to be collected from the manufacturer thereof, provided for the inspection of the same in Baltimore city; Provided, That for measuring and inspecting agricultural lime, he shall receive but one-eighth of one cent per bushel, and shall distinguish the same into first quality, second quality, and condemned, as the nature of the case may require; but nothing herein contained shall apply to lime sent into the city of Baltimore, or manufactured for home consumption.

119. Any person violating the provisions of the last preceding section, shall be subject to a penalty of ten dollars for each offence, to be collected as other small debts.

JURORS.

120. It shall not be lawful for the sheriff of said county, to compel the attendance of any citizen of said county, as a juror in the said court, more than one term of said court, during the term of office of said sheriff.

121. Each juror attending said court shall be entitled to two dollars a day, for each day's service, and if he reside over ten