

126. At least two of the justices and two of the constables in the first, third, and ninth and twelfth election districts, shall reside or keep their offices within half a mile of the boundary line of the city of Baltimore.

127. No justice of the peace in said county shall, in any case of debt or damages, issue a summons or execution, except on application for the same by the plaintiff, or his attorney, in person or by writing, accompanied with the cause or causes of action in said case.

128. If any justice of the peace shall issue a summons or execution contrary to the provisions of the preceding section, or if any constable shall knowingly serve the same, such justice or constable shall be liable to indictment in the Circuit Court for said county, and, on conviction, shall be disqualified from holding his office.

129. No justice of the peace for said county shall engage in the discharge of his duties as justice, in civil matters, in a bar-room of a tavern or public house of that character; and any justice so offending shall be liable to presentment by the grand jury of said county, and, on conviction, shall be fined twenty dollars, one-half to the informer and the other half to the treasurer of said county, for the use of the county.

130. The constables of said county shall have from the first to the third day of the session of the Circuit Court for said county to appear before the grand jury.

LIVERY STABLES.

131. Any person keeping horses at livery in Baltimore county, may retain in his custody any horse, mare, gelding, or vehicle placed under his care for livery, until all charges for so keeping shall have been paid by the owner thereof.

132. Any person keeping horses at livery in said county, may state an account for the keeping of any horse, mare, gelding, or vehicle, and prove the same before any justice of the peace for said county; and the said justice, being satisfied by proof of demand, refusal or neglect to pay on the part of the owner, shall thereupon issue his warrant authorizing the sale of such horse, mare, gelding, or vehicle.
