

133. Upon receiving such warrant the said keeper of horses at livery may sell such horse, mare, gelding, or vehicle at public auction, at some public place in said county, after giving at least ten days' notice in two of the daily newspapers, published in the city of Baltimore, of the time, place and manner of sale, and, after deducting the amount due for keeping and all expenses of said sale, shall pay the surplus, if any, to the owner thereof.

LEGAL NOTICES.

134. The advertisements, orders and notices required to be published in a newspaper or newspapers, by the Circuit Court for Baltimore county, the Orphans' Court for said county, the register of wills, the clerk of the Circuit Court, the county commissioners, and the sheriff of said county, shall be published in at least one newspaper in Baltimore county, out of the limits of the city of Baltimore, during the publication of a paper in said county.

NUISANCES.

135. No person shall haul, cart, carry, drag, or deposit any dead carcass, or other carrion, in Baltimore county, within one mile of the city of Baltimore, unless he shall bury, or cause the same to be buried, at least two feet under ground, and so as effectually to prevent any offensive smell therefrom, under the penalty of twenty dollars for each offence, together with the expense of burying or removing the same.

136. No person shall keep and maintain any kennel or pack of hounds, or any number of that species of dogs, exceeding three, within Baltimore county, within one mile of the city of Baltimore; and any person keeping and maintaining, or causing to be kept and maintained, any number of hounds, contrary to the provisions of this section, shall forfeit and pay the sum of twenty dollars for every such offence, and shall moreover be subject to pay the further sum of one dollar per day for each day the said hounds, exceeding as above, shall be so kept or maintained thereafter.

137. Any person who shall bury or remove any dead carcass or offensive carrion, thrown out and deposited contrary to the provisions of this article, shall recover, before any justice of the peace, against the person guilty of such offence, all expenses thereby incurred in burying and removing the same.
