

138. All fines and forfeitures accruing under the preceding sections of this article, relating to nuisances, may be recovered before any justice of the peace for Baltimore county, one-half for the use of the said county, and the other for the use of the informer; and it shall be the duty of such justice respectively to receive one-half of all such fines and forfeitures, and to render an account thereof to the county commissioners of said county annually at their October term, and to pay the amount to the trustees of the poor for Baltimore city and county.

ORPHANS' COURT.

139. The sessions of the Orphans' Court for Baltimore county shall be held on the Tuesday of each week from ten o'clock A. M. till three o'clock P. M., and may be continued on the Wednesday of each week, if, in the judgment of the court, the public business and convenience require it.

140. The said court may sit during the sessions of the Circuit Court for said county as frequently, and as long as it may deem proper and necessary.

141. The judges of said court may appoint a bailiff, who shall attend each sitting of the court, and perform such duties as the court and register of wills may direct, and shall be paid quarterly by the county commissioners, upon the certificate of the register of wills, two dollars per day for each day he shall be in attendance upon said court.

142. Each judge of said court shall be paid by the county commissioners of said county, upon the certificate of the register of wills, three dollars per day for each day they may be in session, and five cents per mile for going to and returning from each session of said court over and above ten miles of the distance from his place of residence to the place of holding the court; but mileage shall not be allowed more than once for a protracted session of two or more consecutive days.

143. The county commissioners of said county shall levy annually such sum as they may estimate will be sufficient to pay the judges and bailiffs of the Orphans' Court for the next succeeding year; and it shall be the duty of the register of wills to certify quarterly to the treasurer of the county the number
