of days each of said judges and bailiffs has attended said court during the quarter, and the treasurer shall pay them accordingly.

QUARRIES.

144. The proprietors of all quarries on either side of the Falls turnpike road, between the second mile-stone on said road and the city of Baltimore, shall cause notice to be given by means of a bell of such size and sound as may be heard at the distance of six hundred yards, of each explosion or blast, at least five minutes before any such explosion or blast shall be made.

145. The proprietor (or tenant, in case of lease) of the quarry wherein any neglect to comply with the provisions and directions of the foregoing section shall occur, shall, for each violation or neglect, be subject to a fine of ten dollars, to be recovered, by warrant, before any justice of the peace for said county, for the use of the informer.

REGISTER OF WILLS.

146. The register of wills for Baltimore county shall keep a general alphabet or index to the records of the wills, and of such other matters recorded in said office, as the public convenience may require, and shall be entitled to demand and receive from the party for whom the service is performed ten cents for each will or other matter entered therein.

147. A certificate, under the hand and seal of the register of wills for said county, that it appears by the records in his office that letters testamentary, or of administration, or of collection, have been granted, shall be as good and available in any case whatever and to all intents and purposes as the original letters testamentary, or of administration, or of collection, duly granted, would be, if exhibited.

148. He may make searches of and take office copies from the books of records, dockets and minutes of proceedings of the late Orphans' Court for Baltimore county, in all cases where the same are required in relation to estates where the deceased was, at the time of his death, a resident of Baltimore county, without the city of Baltimore, and may receive the usual fees therefor.
