

167. They shall appoint a treasurer, who shall also act as secretary to the board, and who shall give bond to the State of Maryland, with at least two securities to be approved by them, in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars, with condition that he will faithfully perform the duties of treasurer of the school commissioners of said county, and pay over and apply all moneys that shall come to his hands or care as treasurer, to such persons and in such manner as the school commissioners shall direct, and that he will keep and enter a full and fair account of all moneys received and paid by him, and of all matters relating to his duties and office, and preserve the same, and all the vouchers relating thereto, and deliver up all the books and vouchers relating to his office, whenever they are required by the school commissioners, to such persons as they shall appoint to receive the same.

168. The said treasurer shall be elected annually at such time as the said school commissioners shall in their by-laws or constitution provide, and shall receive such compensation as they may from time to time determine, not exceeding six hundred dollars per annum.

169. The treasurer of Baltimore county shall pay to the order of the school commissioners, properly attested by the signature of the president and secretary of said corporation, on the first Wednesday of each month, on account of the general school tax authorized by this article to be levied in said county, the amount to which the public schools in said county are entitled.

170. The treasurer of Baltimore county shall keep a separate account of all moneys received from taxes levied on account of and for the use and support of public schools of said county, and of all moneys paid out on account of said schools, and to whom paid.

171. No money received from taxes levied or other sources for the use of the public schools of said county, shall be used or applied to any other purpose whatever.

172. All bequests in aid of the school fund of Baltimore county, and all the real and personal estate of intestates payable thereto, all State donations, fines, penalties, forfeitures and dividends payable thereto, shall be paid to the order of the school commissioners, properly attested by the signature of the president and secretary.
