

205. The proceedings on the judgment of the justice of the peace shall not be stayed by any appeal, unless the appellant, within ten days after the rendition of the same, shall enter into an appeal bond to the State, with two sufficient securities, to be approved by the said justice, in a penal sum of double the amount in value of the boat or craft and property seized, and the fines imposed, to be estimated by the said justice, conditioned to prosecute with effect his appeal to the Circuit Court; and it shall be the duty of the justice taking the appeal bond, immediately to deliver the same to the officer who made the arrest, and in case of forfeiture of the bond, the said officer may prosecute the same for his use, and the use of those engaged with him in making the arrest and seizure.

206. If within ten days from the rendition of the judgment no appeal bond is accepted by the justice of the peace to arrest further proceedings on said judgment, it shall be the duty of the officer making the arrest and seizure, after having given ten days' notice by public advertisement, to sell to the best advantage for cash, for his benefit and the benefit of those who aided him in making the arrest and seizure, the boat or craft in his possession, together with all the furniture, tackle and apparel, and all other property so seized and taken.

207. If resistance be made to the sheriff or any officer engaged in making such arrest or seizure, such resistance shall be deemed a misdemeanor, presentable by the grand jury of the county, and punishable in the Circuit Court by fine and imprisonment, as other misdemeanors are punished.

208. After the payment of the costs accruing from the prosecution of the offenders, the balance arising from the fine and sale of the boat and other property hereinbefore mentioned shall be divided or apportioned in the following manner: one-half to the officer and those who assisted him in making the arrest and seizure, and the balance to be paid over to the commissioners of the county, for the benefit of the school fund of the county.

WITNESSES.

209. The clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore county shall make out annually, before the time for making the county levy, a list of the State's witnesses who have attended at said court,
