SECTION 1. The inhabitants of the city of Baltimore are a corporation, by the name of the "Mayor and City Council of Baltimore," and by that name shall have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued, may purchase and hold real, personal and mixed property, or dispose of the same for the benefit of said city, and may have and use a common seal, which may be altered at pleasure.

2. All the property and funds of every kind belonging to or in possession of the city of Baltimore are vested in the said corporation, and the said corporation may receive in trust, and may control for the purpose of such trusts, all money or other property which may have been or shall be bestowed upon such corporation by will, deed, or in any other form of gift or conveyance in trust for any general corporation purpose, or in aid of the indigent and poor, or for the general purposes of education, or for charitable purposes of any description within the said city; and the said corporation may lease or otherwise dispose of any property belonging to the city, having first given public notice of such proposed lease or sale in one or more of the public newspapers of said city, at least once a week for three successive weeks before such lease or sale.

3. The city of Baltimore is divided into twenty wards, according to their present bounds and limits, and it shall be the duty of the corporation to correct the divisions from time to time, so as to preserve as accurately as may be an equal number of inhabitants in each ward.

4. The inhabitants of the city of Baltimore qualified to vote for members of the House of Delegates shall, on the second Wednesday in October in every second year, elect by ballot a person of known integrity, experience, and sound judgment,
