

and city council of Baltimore shall hereafter conflict or interfere with the powers or the exercise of the powers of the Board of Police of the city of Baltimore hereinafter created; nor shall the said city, or any officer or agent of the corporation of said city, or of the mayor thereof, in any manner impede, obstruct, hinder or interfere with the said Board of Police, or any officer, agent or servant thereof or thereunder.

33. The mayor and city council shall have power to pass all ordinances necessary to give effect and operation to all the powers vested in the corporation of the city of Baltimore, but the ordinances of the said corporation shall be in no wise obligatory upon the persons of non-residents of said city, unless in cases of intentional violation of ordinances previously promulgated.

ALMS-HOUSE.

34. There shall be annually appointed seven trustees of the poor of Baltimore city and county, four of whom shall be residents in the city of Baltimore, and shall be appointed by the mayor and city council, in the same manner as officers under the corporation are appointed, and the other three shall be residents of Baltimore county, and shall be appointed by the county commissioners of said county; and all vacancies that shall occur shall be filled by appointments to be made in the same manner.

35. The trustees so appointed, and their successors, are hereby declared to be a body politic and corporate, by the name, style and title of "The Trustees for the Poor of Baltimore city and county," and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and shall be capable in law to sue and be sued, and to purchase, hold, use or sell, convey and deliver all kinds of lands, tenements, estates, property and effects, real, personal and mixed.

36. They may have and use a common seal, and the same at their pleasure alter or renew.

37. They shall each, before entering upon the duties of his office, before some judge or justice of the peace, take and subscribe an oath that he will diligently and faithfully execute the duties and trusts, and exercise the powers committed to and vested in him as trustee for the poor of Baltimore city and county, according to the best of his skill and judgment.
