

99. A license may, on the request or with the consent of the party, be issued by the Treasurer, nunc pro tunc, so as to avail him for a year from the day on which his license expired, or in such manner as to avail him for any part of the interval the applicant may desire, but no license issued under this section shall acquit the party obtaining it of any penalty hereby imposed for selling without license, if prosecution therefor shall have commenced before such license was obtained.

100. In case of the death of any auctioneer before the time limited in his license expired, his copartner, or copartners, if he has any, or his personal representative, may continue to act under the license for the unexpired time.

101. All recognizances directed to be taken by this law shall be taken by the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas, and duplicates shall be made of the record of every such recognizance by said clerk, one whereof shall be delivered, or be caused to be delivered, by such auctioneer to the Treasurer within ten days after the date of such record, and the other shall be retained by said clerk, who shall be entitled to demand for the same from the auctioneer the sum of one dollar.

102. The Treasurer, on his being satisfied that the recognizance herein required has been entered into by any of the persons appointed auctioneers by the Governor, and upon his receiving the license fee hereby required from such person, shall issue a general or special license to such person as the person may be entitled to, for the term of one year from the date of such license.

103. If any person or persons not appointed and authorized in the manner herein directed, nor by, nor under the authority of the United States, shall sell or attempt to sell any goods, wares, merchandise or effects, real estate, or vessels in the city of Baltimore, he shall be considered guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be subject to presentment and indictment, and shall, on conviction, be fined in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisoned for a term not exceeding three months, or both, at the discretion of the court.

104. If any auctioneer shall sell any goods, wares, merchandise or effects, or real estate, or vessels, by way of public auction, without having entered into recognizance and paid the license
