

fee hereby required, he shall forfeit the sum of fifty dollars for each and every article exposed to sale, to be recovered by any person suing for the same before any justice of the peace for the city of Baltimore.

105. If any auctioneer shall sell any goods or property other than such as he is authorized to sell by the terms of his license, he shall forfeit for every such article so sold the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered by any person suing for the same before any justice of the peace for the city of Baltimore, or by indictment in the Criminal Court.

106. If any person commissioned as auctioneer shall neglect to take out a license within twenty days after his commission shall have been forwarded to him by the Governor, such commission shall be deemed null and void, and the Governor shall appoint some other person to supply the vacancy in the number of auctioneers caused by such neglect.

107. The recognizance herein required shall be annually renewed.

108. If any security or securities entered into by any auctioneer shall remove from this State or become insolvent, the Treasurer shall demand other security or securities in his or their place, and if the auctioneer shall neglect or refuse to give other security within three days after such demand is made, his license shall thenceforth be null and void to all intents and purposes as if the same had never been granted, and the Treasurer shall immediately give public notice thereof in two or more public newspapers published in said city.

109. If any auctioneer appointed under this law shall accept at any time during the continuance of his appointment an appointment as auctioneer from any other State, he shall be deemed to have forfeited his appointment under this law.

110. Every auctioneer in said city shall designate in writing his partner or partners, if any are engaged with him in his said business, and the houses or stores occupied by him for the transaction of auction business, and shall deposit such writing with the Treasurer; and if any auctioneer in said city shall enter upon the duties of his office before so doing, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be fined in a sum
