

purpose of deepening and improving a channel in the Chesapeake Bay and Patapsco River below Fort McHenry, and the Treasurer shall, upon the warrant of the Comptroller, disburse and pay over to the mayor and city council of Baltimore all such duties, to be applied under their direction to the purpose aforesaid.

128. It shall be the duty of the mayor and city council, on or before the first day of February in each year, to report to the Comptroller a fair and distinct account of their disbursements in relation to the deepening and improvement of said channel, and the Comptroller shall report the same to the General Assembly.

129. If the net proceeds of said duties shall exceed the sum of twenty thousand dollars, then the excess of said duties above that sum shall remain in the treasury, to be disbursed as any other revenues not specially appropriated.

130. The provisions of the three preceding sections shall not have any effect if the city of Baltimore, by ordinance or otherwise, make any charge on articles passing over or deposited on the wharves of said city for a less time than one day, for the purpose of delivery only, from or on board of any vessel trading within the limits of this State other than the regular wharfage chargeable on such vessel.

131. Nothing herein contained shall prohibit the sale of leather, iron or tobacco, by the person who manufactured the same, without the license herein required.

BAIL.

132. In all criminal cases in which bail shall be forfeited by the Criminal Court of Baltimore, the person or persons who shall have entered into such recognizance for the appearance of any traverser or prisoner, shall be liable forthwith to an attachment for contempt for the non-appearance of the said party, which attachment shall be issued by the court, at the instance of the attorney prosecuting.

133. In all cases in which bail as aforesaid is forfeited, the court may, on return of said attachment, order the person or persons who may have entered into recognizance for the appearance of the traverser or prisoner before said court, to stand com-
