

ance of twenty-five cents for the carriage only when sent from the stand. 2. Children over ten years, half price; no charge under that age. 3. Stopping ten minutes, or leaving the carriage, to make a new charge. 4. All cases not provided for in this article are left to the agreement of the parties.

143. The owner of any licensed hackney carriage, before he shall be entitled to charge, ask, or receive any hire or compensation for the use thereof, shall cause the number of such carriage as stated in his license, in plain and easily legible figures at least two inches in length, to be painted or otherwise delineated in conspicuous places on each side of such carriage, both within and without, either in black or yellow, on a white ground, or in white or yellow, on a black ground, and shall also keep, in at least two conspicuous positions in the interior of such carriage, a copy of the rates of fare or charges prescribed in this article, printed on a white paper card with black ink, by types of a size not less than long primer, so that the same may be conveniently seen and read in the daytime by any person who may be a passenger in said carriage.

144. Every owner of a hackney carriage licensed as aforesaid, for the use of which any higher or greater rate of fare shall be asked and received by any driver or other person having care of such carriage than what is prescribed by this article, or who shall omit or neglect to comply with the directions of the last preceding section, shall incur a penalty of ten dollars; every continuance of an omission to comply with the provisions of the said last preceding section for one day after any prosecution therefor being taken as a distinct offence.

145. Every driver of any licensed hackney carriage who shall ask and receive any greater hire, or other compensation in money or other valuable articles, for the use of such carriage, or the conveyance of any persons or baggage therein, than is prescribed in this article, or who shall refuse or omit when required to inform any person using such carriage or applying for the use of it, of the true number thereof, or the correct amount of the rates of fare authorized to be charged for the use of it, or who shall wilfully mislead, or misconvey, or insult, by abusive or indecent and opprobrious language, any passenger whom he shall have or shall have had in his care for conveyance in the carriage of which he is the driver, shall for every such offence incur such penalty, not exceeding twenty dollars, as shall be
