

157. In case the said person is tried upon a presentment or indictment, it shall only be necessary to allege in the presentment or indictment that the offence was committed between the hours aforesaid, and that it was committed on a highway in the city of Baltimore, or at a place of public resort or amusement, without setting forth said highway or place of public resort or amusement by name.

158. All persons confined in the jail of Baltimore city for offences punished by confinement in said jail, shall, after conviction, be kept occupied at hard labor in some useful employment, and the visitors of the said jail shall frame such regulations as may be necessary to the industry, quiet and discipline of the persons confined in said jail who may have been convicted of any offences punishable as aforesaid by confinement, and ordered to be confined therein.

159. All persons confined in said jail under the provisions of the preceding section, shall be kept separate from such persons as are in confinement awaiting trial or for other offences.

COURTS.

SUPERIOR COURT.

160. The stated terms of the Superior Court of Baltimore city shall commence on the second Monday in January, the second Monday in May, and the second Monday in September in each year.

161. In addition to the first day of each term, the second Monday in February, March, April, June, July, October, November and December in each year, shall be return days.

162. Any person instituting an action in said court, may, at his election, have his original writ made returnable to the first day of the next succeeding term, or the next succeeding return day.

163. On the return of any original writ not executed, the same may be renewed, returnable to the next term or next return day thereafter.
