

THE MARYLAND CODE.

Published by Authority of the State of Maryland.

Public General Laws, and Public Local Laws, compiled by OTHO SCOTT, and HIRAM M'CULLOUGH, Commissioners; adopted by the Legislature of Maryland, January Session, 1860: the Acts of that Session being therewith Incorporated: with an INDEX to each ARTICLE and SECTION. By HENRY C. MACKALL, of the Maryland Bar. Two vols. 8vo. law sheep, 1,788 pages, only $6. Interleaved, $10.

—The first edition of the Code being exhausted by the subscription of the State, the City of Baltimore, and the public, the Publishers have the pleasure of announcing that they will have a new edition ready early in September, for which they respectfully solicit early orders.

—It is deemed superfluous to dwell on the merits or advantages of this great work, the preparation of which has cost the State upwards of $50,000. It is perhaps the most complete body of domestic jurisprudence ever published, for popular as well as professional use. As a perfect compendium of our State Law, made accessible by an elaborate and well digested Index, it should at once enlist the good will and secure the patronage of every citizen. Every Law Officer, every Merchant, Manufacturer and Farmer, every Mechanic and Artizan, every professional and business man, ought to secure a copy of THE CODE.

- I. The Curse of the Village; The Happiness of Being Rich; and Blind Rosa.
- II. The Lion of Flanders; or, The Battle of the Golden Spurs.
- III. Count Hugo of Craenhove; Wooden Clara; and the Village Inn-keeper.
- IV. Veve; or, The War of the Peasants;—and the Conscript.
- V. The Miser; Ricketicketack; and the Poor Gentleman.
- VI. The Demon of Gold.

The publishers have the pleasure of announcing that they have just issued a uniform edition of the Tales and Romances of M. HENDRIK CONSCIENCE, the distinguished Flemish Novelist. FONTMARTIN, the acute French critic and reviewer, has likened the stories of Conscience, to "pearls set in Flemish gold," and in point of delicacy of treatment and high moral value, they richly justify the comparison.
