

any fish in said city, he shall forfeit and pay one hundred dollars.

319. If the chief inspector or a sub-inspector shall place any mark or brand on any barrel or cask of fish other than its condition or quality requires, he shall forfeit an amount equal in value to the barrel or cask thus wrongfully marked; Provided, that nothing in this section shall hold such inspector responsible for such forfeiture for a longer time than one month after such fish have been inspected.

320. It shall be lawful for any person to land salted fish for inspection, sale or storage, on any public wharf, or with the consent of the owner, on any private wharf in the city of Baltimore, except from the first day of June to the first day of November in each year; and from the first day of June to the first day of November, any merchant dealing in fish in the city of Baltimore shall be allowed to have in his warehouse or on his premises, at any one time, forty-eight barrels of merchantable fish, and no more.

321. The keeper of the public storehouse in the said city shall give a receipt for the number of barrels or half barrels of fish landed at the public storehouse, as soon as they are inspected and coopered, when they are left to be stored, and no storage shall be charged or exacted when the party who has charge of them demands their removal to the city before three o'clock of the afternoon of the day on which they are landed and inspected, or if the owner takes them into his own or any other vessel not belonging to said house on the day they are inspected, before five o'clock in the afternoon, he shall not be subject to any storage or scow hire.

322. If the keeper of the said public storehouse refuse to give a receipt as directed in the preceding section, he shall forfeit and pay one hundred dollars, one-half to be paid to the party injured and the other half to the State, to be recovered in the name of the State by action in the Court of Common Pleas.

323. If any person in said city shall attempt to prevent or obstruct the landing, inspection and storage of salted fish in said city, between the first day of November and the first day of June in each year, on any public wharf or place where salted provisions are usually landed and stored, he shall forfeit and pay
