

dollars for every bushel so bought or sold; and upon conviction for the offence he shall be dismissed from his office.

383. If any inspector shall accept or receive, directly or indirectly, any gratuity or reward for any thing done by him in pursuance hereof, other than what is hereinafter allowed as his compensation, he shall upon conviction forfeit the sum of one thousand dollars, and ever after be incompetent to hold the office of inspector under the laws of this State.

384. If any purchaser of grain shall fail or refuse to take or receive the same, and charge or allege that the bulk is not equal in quality to the sample by which he purchased, and it shall appear that six hours have passed since the sale took place and no complaint has been made to the seller or his agent within that time, it shall be presumed, unless clearly proved to the contrary, that the bulk does correspond with the sample, and the purchaser shall be compelled to pay all damages and charges that may have arisen by reason of his delay or refusal to comply with his contract, to be assessed and determined by the said inspector general.

385. If any owner, or agent of any owner, of grain, or any buyer of or dealer in grain, shall fraudulently alter or change any sample of any grain that may have been drawn and inspected by any inspector, with a view and for the purpose of improving or deteriorating its quality, he shall upon conviction before any justice of the peace of this State be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars.

386. If any person so convicted shall feel aggrieved thereby, he may appeal within thirty days after the rendition of the judgment, upon giving good and sufficient bond, with sureties to be approved by the justice to prosecute his appeal with effect at the next term of the Court of Common Pleas.

387. Each inspector shall make a daily return, verified by affidavit, to the inspector general of the number of bushels of grain inspected by him, and the inspector general shall make an entry of the same in a well bound book containing the number of bushels inspected for each person, and the said inspector general shall charge and receive for the inspection and weighing of wheat, one cent per bushel upon the entire cargo, or lot, and
