

435. Every licensed inspector shall be entitled to demand and receive for his services, two cents for each hide inspected by him, payable by the party who shall employ him.

436. Each licensed inspector shall report annually to the register of the city, the number of sides and quantities of the leather which he shall have inspected during the year immediately preceding such report, with the amount of fees received by him for the same period.

437. Any person who shall counterfeit or fraudulently alter any one of the marks, stamps, brands or impressions of any such inspection, on any side or sides of leather so inspected, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punishable by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by confinement in the jail of Baltimore city not less than three nor more than six calendar months, at the discretion of the court.

438. No license shall authorize any inspector of leather to act as such without the limits of the city.

439. Any person not having a license who shall act as inspector of leather, or who having a license shall act as such inspector without the limits of the city, shall forfeit and pay to the sheriff of the city the sum of three hundred dollars; said penalty to be imposed as a fine by the Criminal Court on presentment or indictment by the grand jury and conviction in due course of law; and one-third of the penalty shall be paid by the sheriff to the informer, and the residue shall be accounted for to the treasury as other fines; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to forbid the manufacturer or actual bona fide owner of any side or sides of leather from marking or stamping thereon, or on the package containing the same, the quantity or quality thereof.

LIME.

440. Any free white citizen of the State of Maryland, on application to the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas in Baltimore city and paying said clerk the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars, shall be entitled to receive a license to act as inspector of lime for the term of one year from the date thereof.

441. The person applying for such license shall, at the time of receiving the same, take and subscribe before the said clerk an
