442. No person engaged in the manufacturing, vending or trading in lime, individually or as a partner, or as agent, clerk or employee of a manufacturer, vendor or trader in lime, shall be entitled to a license to act as inspector of lime.

443. Any person may sell, export or otherwise dispose of lime without having the same measured and inspected by a licensed inspector, but in all cases of difference between the buyer and seller as to the quantity, quality or measurement, either party may call in an inspector, and his judgment shall bind the parties.

444. The said inspector, upon request, shall measure and inspect any lime in said city, either in bulk or in casks; and if in bulk, he shall give the party at whose request the inspection is made a certificate of the quantity thereof, and also of its quality, that is, whether it is first, second or third quality; and if in casks, he shall mark the same with a legible mark, designating the quality and the quantity of lime they severally contain.

445. The measure used by inspectors of lime shall be the Winchester bushel, containing twenty-one hundred and fifty cubic inches.

446. Each inspector shall be entitled to three-fourths of a cent per bushel for all lime inspected and measured by him in bulk, and six cents for every barrel, and twelve cents for every hogshead, inspected, measured and branded.

447. All lime which in the judgment of the inspector is below the standard of third quality, shall be condemned, and shall be thus mentioned in the certificate of the inspector, or branded or marked on the cask by him.

448. If any wagon driver, owner or agent, shall make use of any device in loading his wagon or other carriage, or in selling barrels, hogsheads or other casks, or shall, after obtaining a certificate, suffer any part of his load to be disposed of or diminished, and then sell or offer to sell the remainder for the quantity mentioned in the certificate, or shall exchange his certificate for any other of a greater quantity or better quality, he shall forfeit and pay for every such offence ten dollars.
