

456. Any person not having a license who shall act as inspector of lime, or who having a license shall act as such inspector without the limits of the city, shall forfeit and pay to the sheriff of the city the sum of three hundred dollars; said penalty to be imposed as a fine by the Criminal Court of Baltimore on presentment or indictment by the grand jury and conviction in due course of law; and one-third of the penalty shall be paid by the sheriff to the informer, and the residue shall be accounted for by the sheriff to the treasury as other fines.

457. All penalties imposed in this law, except that in the last preceding section, may be collected in the name of the State of Maryland as other fines, one-half to the informer and the other to the use of the State.

LIVE STOCK.

458. The Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall biennially appoint a suitable and proper person to be weighmaster of live stock in the city of Baltimore.

459. The person so appointed shall execute a bond to the State of Maryland with two securities, to be approved by the mayor or city council of Baltimore, in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned for the full performance of all acts and things required of him as weighmaster, and to pay all damages that may be sustained by reason of wilful omission, refusal or neglect to discharge the said duties; which bond shall be filed among the records of the Superior Court of Baltimore city, and may be sued by any person injured or damaged by such wilful omission, neglect or refusal.

460. All beef cattle and hogs brought for slaughter within the corporate limits of the city of Baltimore, or within five miles of said limits, which have not been raised or grazed one year within said limits, or within five miles of the same, shall be weighed by said weighmaster before they shall be sold or slaughtered.

461. The said weighmaster shall, upon any day in the week except Sunday, weigh all live stock that may be offered at the live stock scales for that purpose, whether required by the last preceding section to be weighed or not, and shall give a certificate under his hand setting forth the actual gross weight of any number of cattle or hogs, or other live stock so weighed by him,
