

73. The limits of said town shall extend to the distance of one-quarter of a mile each way, from the tavern occupied by John Oliver in the year eighteen hundred and fifty, and shall include the first, second, third and fourth additions to said town, as described on the plats and surveys thereof.

74. The free male white citizens of Frostburg, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who have resided in said town for six months next preceding the election, shall on the first Monday in June, annually, at the town hall in said town, elect five freeholders, who have resided in said town for six months next preceding the election, commissioners of Frostburg.

75. All elections shall be held and conducted as shall from time to time be directed by the laws of the corporation not inconsistent with this charter.

76. The said commissioners shall at their first meeting after an election, choose one of their number president of the Board, who shall preside at their meetings, and preserve order and enforce the provisions of this charter and the ordinances of said corporation.

77. If during the year for which they were elected, any of the said commissioners shall die, resign, remove from said town, or be otherwise disqualified, an election to fill the vacancy shall, after ten days' notice given by said commissioners, be held to fill the vacancy, and all persons qualified to vote at the general shall be qualified to vote at such special election.

78. The said commissioners may meet from time to time, as occasion may require, and not less than once in every three months, and may appoint a clerk, and assign his duties, and allow him such compensation as they may think proper.

79. All ordinances passed by the commissioners shall be entered by their clerk in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and shall be open at all times to the inspection of any person interested, and copies of all ordinances shall be put up in the most public places of said town, that the same may be generally known.

80. The said commissioners may make all such by-laws and ordinances, not contrary to law, as they may deem expedient for
