

the parties or by competent testimony, that the wood to be reviewed remains entire as passed by the corder.

562. The inspector and corder from whose decision the appeal is made, shall be responsible to the party appealing for the sum of twenty cents for each and every cord that the persons who try the appeal shall determine to be of deficiency or excess as the case may be, to be recovered by summons in the name of the party aggrieved, before a justice of the peace, in the same manner as other small debts are recovered; Provided, that if the deficiency or excess shall, in the opinion of said parties, have proceeded from error of judgment in the inspector or corder, then, upon their certifying the same under their hands to the mayor, the party aggrieved shall have no right to recover from the inspector and corder any thing more than the costs of appeal.

563. The persons trying the appeal shall make return to the mayor of their decision, and shall be entitled to receive fifty cents each for their services.

564. The inspectors and corders of firewood shall be entitled to demand and receive six and a quarter cents for each cord of firewood inspected and corded by them, to be paid by the party at whose request the service was performed.

565. No license shall authorize any inspector or corder of firewood, to act as such without the limits of the city.

566. Any person not having a license, who shall act as inspector and corder of firewood, or who, having a license, shall act as such inspector without the limits of the city, shall forfeit and pay to the sheriff of the city the sum of three hundred dollars; said penalty to be imposed as a fine by the Criminal Court on presentment or indictment by the grand jury and conviction in due course of law; and one-third of the penalty shall be paid by the sheriff to the informer, and the residue shall be accounted for by the sheriff to the Treasurer as other fines.

JAIL.

567. The mayor and city council have power to provide by ordinance, for the appointment of visitors or other superintendents of the jail of said city.
