

more city jail, shall be put to and required to labor during such confinement.

598. All persons hereafter sentenced to be imprisoned in said jail for offences by the said court shall be kept on prison fare, and not be allowed any other food or drink, unless by the written direction of the physician of the jail.

599. No admission of visitors shall be allowed to condemned prisoners during their confinement, except the official visitors of the jail, ministers of the gospel, physicians and legal counsel.

600. Nothing contained in the three last preceding sections shall apply to prisoners in the said jail who are under sentence of death.

JURORS.

601*. The judge of the Superior Court for Baltimore city, the judge of the Court of Common Pleas, the judge of the Circuit Court for Baltimore city, and the judge of the Criminal Court of Baltimore shall meet at such place in the city of Baltimore as the said judges shall appoint, on such day in the month of March in each and every year as the said judges shall agree upon; and it shall be the duty of the said judges meeting as aforesaid, at such meeting, or at such adjourned meeting as they shall hold for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, in the month of March of each and every year as aforesaid to select the names of seven hundred and fifty persons, qualified under the law of this State to serve as grand and petit jurors in said city.

602*. In order to assist the said judges in making out the list of jurors aforesaid, the collector of taxes of the city of Baltimore shall, before the first day of February in each and every year, lodge with the clerk of the Superior Court of said city, for the use of said judges, a certified list of all the taxable male inhabitants of the said city, setting out their names and places of residence so far as the same may be ascertained; and the said collector shall receive for such service a compensation to be fixed by said judges, and shall be paid as jurors are paid.

603*. The said judges, having prepared the said list, shall meet in such one of the court rooms of the city of Baltimore as they shall appoint, at such time or times, not less than ten days before the beginning of the May term of the Superior Court for Balti-
