

equitable title, interest and estate of the owners of said property, estate and interest in the same thus valued, as fully as it had been held by the owners of the same; and the valuation, if not received when tendered, may at any time thereafter be received without interest by the said owners, or his or their legal representatives.

649. If the twenty jurors summoned as hereinbefore directed shall not appear at the time and place appointed, the sheriff or his deputy shall forthwith summon other freeholders of the city, qualified as before directed, to make up the said jury to the number of twelve.

650. The jurors summoned and attending shall be allowed one dollar per day for their services; the sheriff shall be allowed the same fees as for summoning jurors to the Superior Court, and two dollars a day for each day he or his deputy shall attend upon such inquisition, and such expenses shall be paid by the mayor and city council, except in cases of objection to the confirmation of the inquisition, when the costs in said court may be awarded in the discretion of the court.

651. The mayor and city council may levy and collect all the costs, damages and expenses awarded as aforesaid.

MILITIA.

652. All able-bodied white male citizens between the ages of twenty-one and forty-five years, residents of the city of Baltimore, except the Vice-President of the United States, the members of both Houses of Congress and their respective officers, the judges of the Circuit Court, Criminal Court, Court of Common Pleas and Superior Court, and the clerks of those courts, the judges of the Court of Appeals and the clerk of that court, the Commissioner of the Land Office, the Registers of Wills, the members of the Legislature of the State and their clerks, whilst in session, the professors and masters of all colleges and public schools, school-masters and practising physicians, all custom-house officers with their clerks, all post-officers and stage-drivers who are employed in the care and conveyance of the mail of the post-office of the United States, all ferrymen employed at any ferry on the post-road, all inspectors of exports, all pilots, all mariners actually employed in the sea service of any citizen or merchant within the United States, all mariners actually engaged in the coasting trade from one State to another, the Treasurer