

returns thereof to the commanding officers of their respective brigades, to be by them recorded.

657. Each regiment of infantry shall not exceed ten companies.

658. It shall be the duty of the commanding officers of every company district, attended by one or more of his officers, non-commissioned officers or privates, whom he may select, to enroll, between the tenth day of March and first day of April in each year, every able bodied white male citizen between twenty-one and forty-five years of age liable to do militia duty within his district; and in all cases of doubt respecting the age of any person enrolled, or intended to be enrolled, the person whose age is questioned shall prove the same to the satisfaction of the commanding officer aforesaid; and if any keeper of a tavern, boarding house, or master or mistress of any dwelling house, shall refuse to give information of the name or names of any person or persons residing with him or her liable to militia duty, when applied to for that purpose by the said commanding officer, or shall give any false information upon such application, he or she shall forfeit the sum of ten dollars for each offence, which shall be recovered under the direction of said commanding officer.

659. If any person liable to militia duty upon the application to him personally by said commanding officer shall either refuse to give his name or not give his name truly, he shall forfeit ten dollars, to be recovered under the direction of said officer.

660. If any officer, non-commissioned officer or private, shall neglect or refuse to perform the duty of enrolling required of him in this article, he shall be cashiered or fined a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, in the discretion of such court martial as the case may require.

661. If any enrolling officer shall omit to enroll any person or persons liable to militia duty within his district within the time aforesaid, he or his successor in office shall enroll such person or persons, as well as those who may from time to time arrive at the age of twenty-one years, whenever the same shall come to his knowledge, and in making said enrolment he shall be attended by one or more of his officers, non-commissioned officers or privates, whom he may select, if he deem it necessary; and the said enrolment shall be entered on the company book of said officer, and a return thereof made forthwith to the commanding
